

Code of Conduct

Players

-  Players are the most important people in football. Fair play and respect for all others involved in the game is vitally important.
-  Obligations to the game:
 - Make every effort to develop their own skill, techniques, tactics and stamina,
 - Give maximum effort and strive for their performance at all times - even if their team is in a position where the result has already been decided,
 - Set a positive example for all others in their team and the club.
 - Avoid gamesmanship and time wasting,
 - Always show regard for the game,
 - Never use foul/abusive language or threatening behaviour/violence.
-  Obligations to their own team:
 - Make every effort to show fair play and keep within the laws of the game,
 - Resist any influence which might question their commitment to their own team.
-  Laws of the game:
 - Know and abide by the laws of the game of football,
 - Accept success and failure equally,
 - Never take performance-enhancing drugs.
-  Respect towards Opponents:
 - Treat opponents with respect at all times,
 - Safeguard the fitness of opponents by avoiding violence/foul play at all times,
 - Help injured opponents when required,
 - Show respect towards all opposition Managers, Coaches, Parents/Spectators.
-  Respecting Match Officials:
 - Accept all decisions made by the match officials without protest,
 - Avoid confrontation with match officials at all times,
 - Show respect towards match officials.
-  Bide by the instructions given to them by the Manager/Coach or any Club Official, provided they do not contradict the spirit of the game or any codes of conduct.
-  Show respect at all times to supporters of both teams.
